(Oh) When you're rife with de- va- sta- tion. There's a sim- ple ex- pla- na- tion: You're a

3 3 3 2 5 6 6 1 | 2 3 2 1· 1 0 2 1 | 6 1 1 6· 2 3 2 1 |
toy- ma- ker's cre- a- tion, trapped in- side a cry- stal ball. And which- e- ver way he tilts it, Know that

3 5 3 2· 6 5 1 2 | 3 3 3 2· 5 6 6 1 | 2 3 2 1 1 0 |
we must be re- sil- ient. We won't let them break our spi- rits, As we sing our sil- ly song.

When I was a lit- tle fil- ly, a gal- lo- ping blaze o- ver- took my ci- ty. So they shipped me off to the or- pha- nage. Said, "ditch those roots if you wan- na fit in".

2 2 2 2 1 2 3 2 1 1 1 | 2 2 2 1 2 3· 2 2 1 |

So I dug one thou- sand holes and cut a rug with or- phan foals. Now

5 5 5 5 4 4 4 3 3 3 3 2 2 2 | 1 1 2 3 2 1 1 6 1 |
me-mo-ries are blurred, and their fa-ces are ob-scured, but I still know the words to this song. When you've

2 3 2 1· 3 6 6 1 | 2 3 2 1 6 6 5 1 2 |
bun- gled all your ban- gles, And your loved ones have been man- gled, Li- sten

3 3 3 2· 5 6 6 1 | 2 3 2 1 1 2 1 | 6 1 1 6· 2 3 2 1 |
to the jin- gle jan- gle, of my gy- psy tam- bou- rine. 'Cause these chords are hyp- no- ti- zing, And the

3 5 3 2· 6 5 1 2 | 3 3 3 2 5 6 6 1 | 2 3 2 1 1 0 ||
whole world's har- mo- ni- zing, So please chil- dren stop your cry- ing, And just sing a- long with me.
